WATERFRONT RULES

1. For safety reasons, a certified lifeguard must be on duty during any activity involving swimming, rope-swinging, or the use of the inflatable Camp Pinnacle slide (Aqua Glide). If you choose not to contract our lifeguards, you may use your own lifeguards. They must provide us a copy of their lifeguards' certification and attend a waterfront orientation from a Camp Pinnacle representative.
2. The Camp Pinnacle Blob is off-limits.
3. There is no night swimming under any circumstances. All aspects of the waterfront are off-limits after sunset, including all use of boats.
4. When using the inflatable slide, please do not wear shoes or slide down head-first. No more than two people can go down the slide at once. Horseplay is never permitted. No more than 10 people may use the slide at one time.
5. Wolfe Lake is shallow. For your safety, no diving is permitted, including from the jumping board or tower.
6. Only one person may use the rope swing at a time. A certified lifeguard must be on tower if the rope swing is being used.
7. In the event of a thunderstorm or observed lightning, the water front will be closed for 20 minutes.
8. A lifeguard is not needed for adults to use Camp Pinnacle boats. If a lifeguard is not present, all boaters must have a buddy. All children in boats must be under the active supervision of an adult.
9. Lifejackets must be worn by everyone using boats, including standup paddle boards.
10. Lifeguards in swimming area are not responsible for watching boaters. Boats and standup paddle boards may never enter the swimming area. This area is marked by buoys.
11. It is the responsibility of the group to return boats and paddles to original location at the end of visit.
12. No glass is permitted on beach or dock areas. We have hundreds of bare feet at the waterfront, and the last thing we want is a cut foot that can ruin a camper's summer or school program.

I have read and understood the Camp Pinnacle Rules and Policies and the Camp Pinnacle Waterfront Rules as written above. I agree to abide by these rules, share them with my guests, and ensure that my guests abide by the Camp and Waterfront Policies and Rules.
